

Canton Semi-Weekly CITIZEN.

SUNDAY MORNING, OCT. 8, 1865.

Read the card of Mr. H. Gwinner, who has School-books, Stationery, Music and Musical Instruments for sale.

We ask attention to the advertisement of Mr. Dunn. He is a number one Boot maker, and we solicit for him a liberal patronage.

Removal.—The Post office is now kept in Mosby & Richard's Drug Store. Very convenient for country friends, when they call for their letters or papers, if they happen to want anything in the drug line, Messrs. M. & R. will wait on you with pleasure.

We ask attention to the advertisement of Messrs. Gross & Keyser. They are well supplied with dry goods and groceries, and offer to sell for small profits. Give them a call, for we know they are gentlemen who will keep their promises and will not extortion.

Mrs. J. C. Kirkpatrick has just returned from New Orleans, where she supplied herself with fashionable Millinery, and will sell low for cash. In connection with Mrs. Sarah Simms, she occupies the upstairs room over Gen. Winter's office. We bespeak for these enterprising ladies a liberal patronage from ladies in and around Canton.

In another column of to-day's paper may be found the names of the Faculty at Annandale Church School. Mrs. LeSene is the daughter of Dr. Cooper, who was the President of Columbia University, S. C. She is the widow of the late eminent jurist, Judge LeSene, of Mobile. As Teacher or Directress of young ladies, we are sure her advantages have been sufficient to render her competent to fill the position. Mrs. Harris, Teacher in English branch, and Prof. DeBoucard of Modern languages, are both well qualified to impart instruction in these departments. As the Right Rev. Wm. M. Green is Chancellor, and Rev. Geo. C. Harris, Rector and teacher in Ancient Languages, we think if a "Faculty" recommends a school, Annandale Church School has sufficient recommendation.

Letter from President Johnson.
[From the London Star.]
The following letter has been forwarded to us for publication. It was addressed by President Johnson to an American gentleman living in Berlin:

My Dear Sir—I thank you for your letter of the 30th of June.
I shall use my best endeavor to make my administration national, and not partial.

Perverting power or influence to partisan ends is only less criminal than attempting the nation's life.
Our nation has come out of its forty years' struggle for existence strengthened and purified, and with a capacity for a growth in the future unparalleled in history.

I am pleased to hear from so intelligent an observer as yourself that the fact that our government is a government of the people—existing only for the people, is being appreciated in Europe.

I trust our national success will prove the success of popular principles throughout the world.

I am, sir, very truly yours,
ANDREW JOHNSON,
President of the United States.

THE ALABAMA CONVENTION.—The following is the ordinance recently passed by the Alabama Convention, ratifying certain laws of the State passed since the 11th day of January, 1861:

Be it ordained by the people of the State of Alabama in Convention assembled, That all the laws enacted by any Legislature since the 11th of January, 1861, that have not since been repealed, and which are not in conflict with the Constitution of the United States and laws made in pursuance thereof, or of the constitution of this State, be and the same are hereby ratified, and declared to be valid from their respective dates; and shall remain in full force and effect until repealed according to law; except, however, all such laws as authorized the issue of Bonds, Treasury Notes, and Change bills by the State, and all laws which authorized the payment of all debts to the State for moneys loaned to individuals or corporations in Confederate money or bonds, and the payment of dues and taxes to the State in Confederate bonds or Treasury Notes, and all laws in relation to taxation.

Be it further ordained, That in computing the time necessary to create the bar of the statutes of limitations and non-claims, the time elapsed between the 11th day of January, 1861, and the passage of this ordinance shall not be estimated.

FACULTY OF THE Church School For Young Ladies AT ANNANDALE.

REV. WM. M. GREEN, D. D., Chancellor.
REV. GEO. C. HARRIS, Rector and Teacher of Ancient Languages.
MRS. JUDGE LESSENE, Vice Principal and Teacher of the Higher English Branches.
MRS. HARRIS, Teacher in English.
PROF. O. L. T. DEBOUCARD, Teacher of Modern Language.

DOLBEAR COMMERCIAL COLLEGE.

Corner of Camp and Common Streets, (In the Spacious Elegant "Story Building.") NEW ORLEANS.

IS CONSTANTLY in session under able Professors. It was founded in 1812, and is chartered by the State. Its former students may be found as Principals or Book-keepers in a large portion of the old houses of this city and over the Southern States. Ladies or gentlemen can attend the Commercial Course, or Book-keeping, Penmanship, Mathematics, English, French or Spanish. A business education that enables one to earn $2,000 or $3,000 annually, is the best fortune parents can give their sons. Ladies and gentlemen are invited to call. There are arrangements for 600 students.
RUPUS DOLBEAR, President.

EVERGREEN NURSERIES,

Situated one mile from the Court House, CANTON, MISS.

THE undersigned have this day formed a copartnership under the style of F. J. DRANE & CO., for the purpose of carrying on the Nursery business in all its branches.

It is the intention of the proprietors to propagate in the Fruit Department, choice varieties only, and such as are well adapted to the soil and climate of the South, ripening in succession over the fruit season. Consequently, purchasers will be positively protected against disappointment.

Every new variety of fine fruit shall be added to our catalogue, as soon as tested and proved to be suited to the climate.

All trees and plants will be carefully labeled and packed in the best manner for any part of the South, for which a moderate charge will be made; and no charge will be made for delivery of packages at the railroads.

It is requested that explicit directions be given for marking and shipping packages, but in all cases, when shipment is made the articles are at the risk of the purchaser.

All orders from unknown correspondents must be accompanied with a remittance, draft, or satisfactory reference.

Our customers are requested to notify us immediately of any error that may be committed in filling their orders, in order that we may at once make amends.

Catalogues will be forwarded to all who apply, post paid, and enclose a stamp to prepay the postage.
